

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Gregory B. Johnson, PE, Principal

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

More than twenty-years of experience in the Civil/Environmental Engineering field. This experience includes:

- Project Management
- Construction Supervision
- Environmental Investigation
- Environmental Remediation

CIVIL/ENVIRONMENTAL PROJECTS

- Oversight and management of environmental claims for insurance companies.
- Management of development projects on contaminated sites.
- Review of Due Diligence reports for mortgage companies.
- Management of environmental consultants for investigation, remediation and monitoring of impacted sites.
- Project Management on Brownfield sites for developers.

EDUCATION

- Masters of Science, with Honors, in Civil/Environmental Engineering from Tufts University, Medford, MA
- Bachelors degree in science from University of Vermont, Burlington, VT

REGISTRATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

- Registered Professional Engineer in Vermont and Massachusetts
- Assessor/Lead Assessor for ISO 9000: 1994 Quality Management Systems
- Hazardous Waste Site Supervisor and Site Worker Certified
- More than fourteen publications in the fields of environmental and biomechanical engineering.